Youngsters Raise 35 Cents for Paralysis Fund from 'Big Show'

"I've been more than repaid for the time and effort I've given toward this year's campaign for the eradication of infantile paralysis," Postmaster Earl Comer said yesterday. "And my payment was not in dollars and cents or any price; it came in the form of a 35-cent contribution to the campaign from young Happy Dolly."

SHOP TALK

Now open and ready for business is King's Cafe, 1646 Cabrillo, near Carson, Spick & span through-out this category is being operated by Inez Hunt and Cliff King, son of old timer Fanny King, for years one of this county's restorers. Inez does the cooking and is said to possess unusual culinary talents. She was formerly cook at a local restaurant. Cliff runs the front, serves the customers, takes in the $$. As yet Shop Talk's Operative No. 77-B has been unable to find out who does the dishes. We must really go to work on this. Any way, King's Cafe presents a good, clean appearance, offers a special dinner, complete with drink and dessert. That appears to be a right smart amount of grub for only 35 cents!

AT IT AGAIN!
"Duke" Woodruff, Herald's circulation man, boasts that since 1914, 29 years ago, he has bought & paid for 21 automobiles, has never hit another car nor been hit, and has never been handed a traffic ticket. Now, Duke, you a lot of that stuff you put out we might believe, but this is going too far.

COCKTAIL CONCOCTION
As pleasant a Cocktail Lounge as you'll ever want to get slobbered in is the new Silver Grill on Craven's next to the Grand Theatre. Operated by Frank & Lou Tibson and managed by "Big Bill" Sully, the Silver Grill is improving by leaps & bounds, is doing a better business right along. From now on into summer Wild Bill says he is going to serve a new drink called Tom Collin's Sister, a whang-ding that tastes likeectar by reacts like a powder magazine going off. Another fancy on Bill's repertoire is a Silver Daquiri, whatever that is. Bill says they ain't no drink he can't mix... and a little bit better than you ever had 'em mixed before!

BLESSSED EVENT
Our weekly concerts go today to Kenny Buford, shoe repairman on Carson street, whose wife up and had a shoppin' 10 B. son about a week ago. This boy makes Kenny's second, the other now being a nifty four. All this is very well, but Shop Talk didn't see any soccer conin' his way. How about it, Kenny?

TRADE-IN SALE
Alden Smith, prop. of Howard's Jewelers, who is always offering something outstanding to Torrance customers breaks out this week with a trade-in watch sale. In this event customers with out-of-date, out-of-style turn-ins can get an extra liberal trade-in allowance on a brand new ticker that is smart and modern. Once a year Howard's holds "this sale" has already modernized many local watches. Elsewhere in today's rag can be found Howard's ad in which the trade-in allowances are shown. Look them over. You probably didn't know your ancient old timepiece was worth so much.

MISCELLANEOUS MINSTRELS
In rehearsal for presentation on the night of Feb. 8 at the Civic Auditor is the "Headline Minstrel Revue" directed by scender, pleasant Isabelle Brown, an out-of-towner for the local 29-30 Club. Miss Brown reports this Revue will be a super-super with songs, dances, end men, black face and all. In the cast are all most all the old regulars... Jim Wilkes, Don Mitchell, Louis Murray, Richard Miller, Jeannette Mickelson, Virginia McNally, Jean Sears and many others. "This said that Jim "Blackups" Wilkes really was a blasted man once, probably had a hunk of the Mississippi about the time of Mark Twain.

Hunters Report White Quail
BRISTOW, Okla. (U.P.)—Albino quail whose feathers are nearly snow white have been sighted near here, hunters report. Tom Moorhead of Bristol said an entire covey of "white quail" recently was flushed south of Mounds, Okla.

Rector Turns Grave Digger
LONDON (U.P.)—When the Rev. Richard Stockdale, rector of Llandough, near Cardiff, Wales, found that the usual grave digger was not available, he set to work and dug a grave himself. Then he conducted the funeral service.

CAKE FOR PRESIDENT'S BIRTHDAY... William Green, head of the American Federation of Labor, with 400-pound cake his organization presented to President Roosevelt for the chief executive's 58th birthday on Jan. 30. Green is telling Roosevelt each candle bears $100 check for paralysis fight. Meanwhile, President John L. Lewis of CIO was denouncing Roosevelt and New Deal.

REDS MAN AIR GUNS... Although Soviets bar U. S. correspondents and cameramen from Finnish fronts, this Moscow picture shows Russia has latest-type anti-aircraft guns. These soldiers are operating a three-barrel gun similar to British "Pom-Pom." Weapon hurls virtual rain of bullets, is most effective against low-flying strafing planes.

Letters to the Editor

GEYER'S STAND
January 22, 1940

Editor Torrance Herald
Torrance, California
My dear Editor:
I have been informed that your paper had printed in its columns a statement to the effect that because of ill health I would not be a candidate to succeed myself for Congress in the 17th district. You have doubtlessly been misinformed as this is not a statement of fact. I certainly do intend to stand for re-election.

Will you please correct the error either by printing this letter or making a statement of fact.
Very sincerely yours,
(Signed) LEE E. GEYER
EDITOR'S NOTE: The Herald reported on Jan. 18: "Due to the serious illness of Congressman Geyer some doubts have been expressed in political circles that he will be able to make the run for re-election."

Throw a dollar out of the window

There's a certain amount of pleasure in throwing a dollar bill out of the window (we suppose—we've never tried it) . . . watching it float through the air . . . guessing where it's going to land . . . seeing it finally settle on a curbstone . . . and perhaps seeing some surprised individual pick it up.

At least, it's certainly more fun than throwing away a dollar bill by paying one hundred cents extra for something you're buying. Yet every year we all part with a goodly sum of hard earned cash that we might otherwise save—if we knew how to buy!

The quickest, easiest, simplest way to learn how to buy is to read the advertisements in this newspaper. Know values. Know prices. Know quality. Start now to stop throwing dollar bills away!

Judge Lessing Heads Want Ad Rhymes Jury

rance theatre.
The ad:
"Best Equipped Radio and Record Shop in Town Plus Master Mechanics, Etc. National Home Appliances Co. 1115 1/2 E. 1st Ave., Torrance." The winning rhyme:
"Don't let radio noise get in your hair. O'Alex', shop for a new one or repair. National Home Appliance prices and terms are made for you—Don't forget to tell your friends—and neighbors, too!"
Fourth Prize Winner
Miss Georgia King Cates, Torrance, will kindly call at the Herald-News office for her tickets to the Torrance theatre.
The ad:
"1st Bd of Thrift Trust Savings Fund NOW OPEN."
"Natalie's Assistant" 1344 El Prado, Tor. 573
The winning rhyme:
"When your chins begin to multiply, You don't feel like a butterfly, Don't starve yourself and pace the park—eat at a cafe—Leave your worries to David Clark."
Fifth Prize Winner
Miss Bessie M. Long of Lomita will kindly call at the Herald-News office in Torrance for her two tickets to the Torrance theatre. Also, call at "Ma" Attebery's for a Southern fried chicken dinner as Mrs. Attebery's guest.
The ad:
"Attebery's Banquet Dinner House."
"1940 W. Semple 1104."
Torrance, Calif., Redondo 6892
The winning rhyme:
"Now when all shall I write about? That's the query! There are so many ads, that they make me weary. But when I'm weary, I think of a meal—So, I'll hike over to Attebery's, and get food that is real!"
RHYMES RULES
Read these few simple rules:
1. Write if four-line rhyme based on some classified advertisement which appears on the regular classified pages of The Herald and News. Your verse must concern some particular ad—not classified ads in general. (Be sure to see rule No. 5.)
2. Write on but one side of the paper, and be sure to paste a clipped copy of the advertisement about which you write on the same side of the sheet—preferably above the rhyme.
3. Date each rhyme you send in.
4. Print your name and address in full and your verse to the "Classified Ad Rhymes Contest Editor," Herald-News Office, Torrance, Calif.
5. You may write more than one rhyme at a time for many as there are ads if you wish but each one must be on a separate sheet of paper and on a different ad each time. You may write
